ArtsBoston and the Greater Boston Convention & Visitors Bureau to Offer Dinner and a Show Discounts During Restaurant Week Boston®

Special offers on theater, music and dance tickets to coincide with Restaurant Week 2010

BOSTON, Mass. (February 1, 2010): ArtsBoston has partnered with the Greater Boston Convention & Visitors Bureau (GBCVB) to offer discounts on theater, music, and dance tickets throughout Restaurant Week Boston 2010. The discounts will be available for performances that coincide with Restaurant Week - March 14-19 & 21-26, 2010.

Over 20 shows are being offered at half price during the two week period in March. Discounts are being offered throughout Greater Boston for performances at organizations including American Repertory Theater, Huntington Theatre Company, Boston Lyric Opera, Improv Asylum, and Blue Man Group.

"Restaurant Week is about creating a special experience and a fun night out in Boston," says Catherine Peterson, Executive Director of ArtsBoston. "And nothing goes with a great dinner better than a great show. So we're thrilled to be able to offer restaurant goes an opportunity to enhance their Restaurant Week experience with affordable access to some of the best shows in town."

Pat Moscaritolo, President & CEO of the GBCVB, also sees the ArtsBoston partnership as a vital new relationship between the arts and restaurants in Greater Boston. "Allowing residents and visitors a chance to experience some of the best restaurants and compelling performing arts is something we've been advocating for years. To see it come to fruition during Winter Restaurant Week 2010 is a wonderful opportunity to showcase Boston's outstanding culinary and arts experiences."
